

Pittsburgh Lajna brings “Essence of Islam” on Community TV Channel

Pittsburgh Lajna was blessed with the opportunity to record programs for Pittsburgh Community TV in PA. The programs are in format of discussion/ information sharing, under the title “essence of Islam”. Three programs of half an hour duration have been recorded so far in the studios of TV Channel, two of which have been on air so far. Each program has been shown by the channel more than once at different times/days.

PCTV21 provides the opportunity to City of Pittsburgh residents and city based non-profit organizations to produce non-commercial television programming for air on Comcast's channel 21 and Verizon FiOS channel 47. Moreover, PCTV transmission can be watched live on their website www.pctv21.org.

The first program of the series dealt with introduction of Islam and Ahmadiyyat and its focus on Peace in different aspects of human life. The second program was on the subject of Status of Women in Islam. In the third program of the series, the subject of Status of women in Islam is continued.

Please pray for Lajna Pittsburgh that may Allah enable them to continue the series of programs so that it can contribute in spreading the true peaceful message of Islam to public at large. Please pray that may Allah make this humble effort successful in every respect and enable Lajna to work diligently and produce standard programs, Ameen.
