KENTUCKY INTERFAITH/ QURAN EXHIBITION REPORT:

The Kentucky Jamaat, in cooperation with Somerset Community College, co-sponsored an Interfaith Conference on August 30, 2012 on the topic of World Peace. The event was organized by a joint effort between Lajna and the Jamaat, with the Lajna making use of its many connections to invite people. The guest speakers presented many interesting speeches and overall, the event was Alhamdulillah, successful.

Afterwards, the audience and speakers visited the Qur'an exhibition and literature table. Several Qur'an with various translations were on display. Next to the Qur'an table was a table full of free literature and literature for sale, providing books upon the fundamentals of Islam. At least 20 people picked up a piece of free literature and one additional Qur'an was purchased. Over 50 people visited the Qur'an exhibition table.

The Lajna interacted on a personal level with several individuals after the inter-faith conference, and one lady in particular, gave her personal information so as to be contacted later on. Each guest was then presented with a gift bag, including a special diary, pen, and a Qur'an. The media concluded that roughly over 100 people were in attendance. Afterwards everyone was invited for a joint dinner at a nearby restaurant to continue the dialogue. Alhamdulillah, this event was blessed with the attendance of the local community and may the Jamaat be blessed to hold many such events in the future.
