

Dallas Lajna Held Meena Bazaar on June 1st

Dallas Lajna held their second annual Meena Bazaar on June 1st 2013. We had a wonderful turnout! We again had a wonderful mouth watering menu, thanks to all generous Lajna members who cooked and donated the food. The aroma of chapli kebabs, seekh kebabs, aloo chana chaat, samosa, roasted chicken, and haleem filled the halls of our masjid, making everyone's mouth water. And let me say our dessert menu was irresistible! On the menu was gulab jamun, various flavors of homemade kulfi, and popsicles, great for the hot weather! We had beautiful decorated stalls of clothing, jewelry, bangles, bedding, house hold item just to mention a few! And of course we had henna application which almost everyone had done.

This year the credit also goes to the Dallas Nasirat who also helped in the fundraising. The Nasirat set-up their own salon, bakery, jewelry, fresh juice and toy shop and raised $125. They had such beautiful colors of nail polish with nail art designs, that even the Lajna had their nails done!

Their bakery was selling delicious cupcakes and chocolate covered Oreo balls which they baked and decorated. Small and colorful boxes filled with candy were also up for grabs. In their jewelry shop they were selling beaded bracelets and necklaces which again our very talented Nasirat made just for the Meena Bazar. The toy shop had a few items which were donated by Nasirat included dolls, books and stuffed toys. The fresh juice shop was selling ice cold Pina colada which was also a big hit! In the end we raised $1490 thanks to Dallas Lajna and Nasirat.
