

Quran Exhibition on May 4th @ Plano Asia Festival

Lajna Dallas had the opportunity to take part at a stall during the Plano Asia Festival that happened in Plano, TX on May 4th 2013. There were many other religious & cultural organizations present at the festival. We handed out various fliers and books including Holy Quran with English and Spanish translation, several copies of “Life of Muhammad”, Jesus in India, several copies of “Muslims Sunrise”, few copies of “Review of Religion”, CDs of Holy Quran recitation, Fliers including Ahmadiyyat, Jihad, Muslims for loyalty, Muslims for Life, Muslims for Peace, and the True Teachings of Islam.

By the grace of Allah we were able to answer many questions and concerns visitors have about Islam, Prophet Muhammad, and Promised Messiah. Books and fliers were given according to the questions and misconceptions they have. Details on our website, the location of our local mosque, and that of our headquarters were also provided. Part of the message we conveyed was the theme of peace, true teaching of Islam and the characteristics and life of Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW). A few people also inquired about our location and were interested in engaging in some type of interfaith dialogue.
