

What is Majlis-e-Shura or Majlis-e-Mushawarat?

Shura is an Arabic word which means consultation. Majlis-e-Shura or Majlis-e-Mushawarat is a consultative body.

It is stated in the Holy Quran:

وَ شَاوِرْهُمْ فِي الْأَمْرِ فَإِذَا عَزَمْتَ فَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ
الْمُتَوَكِّلِينَ ٥

“And consult them in the matter of importance; and when thou art determined, then put trust in Allah, Surely Allah loves those who put their trust in Him.” (3:160)

Majlis-e-Shura (Consultative body) was set up by Hazrat Khalifatul Masih II in 1922. Its purpose was to advise Khalifatul Masih in various important matters. It is held at the International level presided by Khalifatul Masih, at the National level presided by Amir of the country as well as auxillary level presided by their respective National sadrs (i.e. Ansar, Khuddam and Lajna).

According to the constitution of Lajna Imaillah, a meeting of Majlis-e-Shura should be held at least once a year but National Sadr can call a meeting of Majlis-e-Shura at any time during the year.

Where can I find detailed information about Majlis-e-Shura?

The purpose of this document is to provide you with general information and jist of Majlis-e-Shura as it pertains to Lajna Imaillah-USA, its rules and regulations, who can attend it, how delegates are elected, where the results are submitted and how to register for it, etc.

However, there are many resources that will help you understand the goals and objectives of Majlis-e-Shura and responsibilities of representatives of Majlis-e-Shura. These resources include but are not limited to books as well as the sermons and messages of Khulafa at various Majaalis-e-Mushawarat. Many of those resources are available online and have been used to create this Guide/FAQ.

Who are the representatives of Majlis-e-Shura?

Majlis-e-Shura represents the country and consists of the following members:

- ◇ National Officers
- ◇ Regional Sadrs and Local Sadrs
- ◇ Representatives of local Majaalis (Shura delegates)
- ◇ Such lajna members whom National Sadr may specially invite for consultation

A Shura Representative

- ◆ Must be regular in 5 daily prayers, truthful, and honest and have regard for the institution of Khilafat
- ◆ Should be able to recite the Holy Quran
- ◆ Should know the meanings of Holy Quran, if not the whole, then at least part of it
- ◆ Should be regular in paying chanda and be observant of purdah...(Constitution of Lajna)

Conditions from Rule #8 of the Constitution of Lajna Imaillah-USA

A member not fulfilling the following condition shall not be eligible to become a member of Majlis-e-Shura:

- ◆ A member not observing purdah.
- ◆ A member who is in arrears of Obligatory Chandas (viz. Chanda 'Am, Chanda Jalsa alana, Chanda Hissa 'Amad) for six months or more.
- ◆ A member who bypasses the local Jama'at system and insists to send her Chandas directly to the Markaz.
- ◆ A member against whom Jama'at took disciplinary action and a period of two years has not yet been completed after her pardon.
- ◆ A member whose Wasiyyat has been canceled by Sadr Anjuman Ahmadiyya by way of disciplinary action or due to non-payment of Chanda Wasiyyat.
- ◆ A person who ever brought Jama'at funds or Auxiliary Organization funds into personal use.

Pre-election checklist:

- ◆ All elections must be held with permission of or at the directive of the National Sadr
- ◆ General Secretary or Local Sadr can inform members about the election for Majlis-e-Shura delegates
- ◆ Give ample notice to membership (at least one month prior to the scheduled election date)
- ◆ Give frequent reminders to membership regarding their pending dues prior to the election (and throughout the year, in general). Chanda must not be paid or accepted on the day of the election
- ◆ Propaganda or canvassing of any kind is not allowed – implicit or explicit

General guidelines for election of shura delegates:

- ◆ An election must be held for Shura delegates. Without elections, no representatives will be allowed to represent the majlis in the Shura proceedings
- ◆ National Officers, Regional Sadrs and Local Sadrs are ex-officio shura delegates, therefore, should not be nominated for elections
- ◆ Any National Officer, Regional Sadr or Local Sadr can conduct the shura elections
- ◆ If none of the aforementioned officers are available to conduct the elections then a lajna member from your majlis who will not be able to attend the Shura (for health, family, illness, etc) even if she were elected may conduct the elections
- ◆ A concerted effort should be made to ensure Quorum requirements will be met

Delegates' Election Procedure:

- ◆ Start the meeting with recitation of the Holy Quran and begin and end the election proceedings with silent prayers
- ◆ From the constitution of Lajna Imaillah-USA read Rule # 12, as revised, page 6; Rule # 8 pages 4-5; Rule # 190, page 22; Rule # 201, page 23
- ◆ Names should be nominated and seconded. If a name is not seconded, it gets dropped automatically
- ◆ Number of Majlis-e-Shura delegates from a majlis are elected based on their chanda paying tajnid—see previous page
- ◆ It is recommended that the number of nominations exceed the number of required delegates to ensure there are standbys available in case the elected members cannot attend the shura proceedings
- ◆ Elections shall be open by show of hands
- ◆ Everyone can vote as many times as the number of delegates for the election of Majlis-e-Shura delegates. Example: A majlis is allowed 4 delegates and 7 names are nominated and seconded, all lajna members can vote for any 4 of those 7 names
- ◆ In this example, 4 members with highest votes will be the delegates and 3 remaining names can be submitted as standbys in the order of most # of votes.
- ◆ In large majaalis, tickets or stickers can be used in addition to a show of hands to help with counting of votes
- ◆ It is not allowed by the constitution to nominate, second or vote for ones own self
- ◆ Any member who nominates or seconds a person, must vote for the same person

What are quorum requirements for Majlis-e-Shura elections?

- ◆ First meeting: Half (50%) of chanda paying members
- ◆ Second meeting: If the quorum is not realized in the first meeting, only 1/3 (33%) of chanda paying members is required.
- ◆ Third meeting: If the quorum is not realized in the second meeting either, there are no quorum requirements.

Tip: Use Tickets or Stickers to keep track of delegates:

- ◆ Tickets, stickers or something similar can be used to help with the vote count. For example, if a majlis is allowed 4 delegates, every chanda paying member can be given 4 stickers. Each time they vote for a person, they should keep their hands up till one sticker has been collected from them by the counter
- ◆ Counter must count the total number of hands up which should be same as the number of stickers collected for that person

When and Where should Delegate election results be submitted?

- ◆ Use the Delegates' Election Results Form, provided on page 6 of this manual. See screen shots below for online portal instructions
- ◆ Local sadr or the presiding officer should submit the results online via the Shura Delegates Election Results Submission Portal using the official lajna email account as login ID and associated password (same login ID and password that is used to access the Tajnid Portal)
- ◆ National officers and regional sadrs can also submit the delegates election results using their official lajna email account as login ID and the associated password
- ◆ Enter names of delegates in the portal in the order of most # of votes to least. Portal will automatically provide the # of rows/records based on your chanda paying Tajnid.

The screenshot shows a login form titled "Login to Submit Delegates' Election Results". It contains a "Please login" section with fields for "Login Name" (containing "jgeneralsecretar@lajna") and "Password" (masked with ""). A "Login" button is located at the bottom right of the form.

Approval of Delegates & Observers:

- ◆ An elected delegate is not automatically a Shura delegate. She has to be approved by National Sadr to attend Majlis-e-Shura proceedings
- ◆ A Lajna member who has not attended any National meetings in the past 3 years may be approved to attend the Majlis-e-Shura proceedings as an observer. Local Sadr should submit a request to National Sadr for approval of the observer providing a valid reason for her selection. All observers' requests must be submitted by local lajna sadr online through Observers Submission Portal. All observer requests may not be honored
- ◆ Approved delegates/observers will receive notification from National Sadr along with registration information via email. Respective local sadrs will be copied on those emails and will be responsible for ensuring that approved delegates/observers have received their notification and registration instructions
- ◆ All approved delegates/observers should attend Majlis-e-Shura for its entire duration. Prior approval must be obtained from National Sadr for exceptional circumstances
- ◆ If an approved delegate is unable to attend the Shura, the approved standby with most number of votes can attend. Local Sadr should inform National Sadr of any such changes and ensure that the standby has received the instructions and submitted her registration

Financial assistance:

- ◆ National will reimburse 50% of travel costs for approved delegates who travel greater than 200 miles from the meeting location. Local funds will be used to reimburse the remaining 50% of travel costs (as needed)
- ◆ It is the responsibility of each delegate to research travel costs and purchase air fare at reasonable costs. If costs are exceedingly higher than the average price, delegates may be asked to cover the excess cost through local or personal funds.
- ◆ Observers are required to pay for their own travels expenses

About Proposals submitted for Majlis-e-Shura:

- ◆ The proposals for Majlis-e-Shura can be related to a department or another matter or issue of broad implication
- ◆ Proposals that are sent on behalf of a Lajna Majlis must first be discussed openly in a general meeting and agreed upon by a majority vote
- ◆ Members of the National Amila are also encouraged to submit proposals
- ◆ Since it is not possible to discuss all proposals in one Shura, similar proposals are grouped together and 2-3 proposals (that have a wide and relevant application to many lajnaat) are selected/voted-upon by the National Majlise Amila and sent to Hazrat Khali-fatul Masih for his approval before they can be discussed by Shura committees

- ◆ All proposals must be submitted online through Proposals submission Portal (see screen shots)
- ◆ All local proposals must be submitted by the local Lajna Sadr using the official lajna email account as login ID and password (same login ID and password that is used to access the Tajnid Portal)
- ◆ National officers and regional sadrs can also submit proposals using their official lajna email account as login ID and the associated password
